Directions: Each of the sentences below relates to one of the five themes of geography. Abbreviations for the 5 themes are in the table below. Identify which theme is revealed in each sentence, by putting the abbreviation for that theme in the blank next to the sentence. Be able to defend why you chose each answer, as you may be called on to give a reason.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>L = Location</th>
<th>P = Place</th>
<th>HEI = Human-Environment Interaction</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>M = Movement</td>
<td>R = Regions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. _____ Kiwi fruit from New Zealand is on sale at the supermarket.

2. _____ Man has driven the black rhino to near extinction.

3. _____ In the bayous (marshy bodies of water) of Louisiana, many houses are built on stilts.

4. _____ Railroad networks in Europe make traveling easier for tourists.

5. _____ Deserts are not all hot and dry; Antarctica is a desert of sorts.

6. _____ Mauritania is southwest of Russia.

7. _____ The warmth of the southern states makes them attractive for retirement.

8. _____ Islam is the major religion in the MidEast.

9. _____ Sheep are raised in Iceland for the wool used in Icelandic sweaters.

10. _____ The mountain passes of the Rockies are treacherous in the winter and even a bit scary in the summer.