

Pennsylvania's Young Driver Graduated Licensing Requirements Fact sheet

The information provided on this fact sheet is from the Department of Motor Vehicles Web site at:

http://www.dot10.state.pa.us/pdotforms/young_drivers/yng_drv_fact_sheet\(12-99\).pdf.pdf)

LEARNER'S PERMIT	JUNIOR LICENSE	UNRESTRICTED LICENSE
Effective August 24, 1999
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 11p.m. to 5 a.m. driving restriction (previously midnight to 5 a.m.) • Number of passengers must not exceed number of seat belts in vehicle (no previous requirements) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. driving restriction (previously midnight to 5 a.m.) • Number of passengers must not exceed number of seat belts in vehicle (no previous requirement) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of passengers must not exceed number of seat belts in vehicle for all drivers under age 18 (no previous requirements)
Effective December 22, 1999
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mandatory 6 months for skill building before road test (previously 30 days) • Permit valid for one year (previously 120 days) • Supervising adult must be 21 or older (previously age 18) • Certification of 50 hours Of behind-the-wheel skill building (no previous requirement) • Mandatory 90-day suspension for 6-point or more accumulation or a single high-speed conviction (26 miles per hour or more over posted speed limit) (previously discretionary sanctioning) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mandatory 90-day suspension for 6-point or more accumulation or a single high-speed conviction (26 miles per hour or more over posted speed limit) (previously discretionary sanctioning) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Possible until age 18 with: • Crash - and conviction - free record for 12 months • Completion of an approved driver's education course • Otherwise, full license not possible until age 18 (previously, full license possible at age 17 with clean driving record and completion of approved driver's education course) • Mandatory 90-day suspension for 6-point or more accumulation or a single high-speed conviction (26 miles per hour or more over posted speed limit) (previously