

NAME _____
Social Studies
Ch 1 Study Guide-Questions
DATE _____

1. A historian would be interested in _____,
_____, and _____.
2. An archaeologist would explore _____.
3. How can studying history help us with decision making? _____

4. The beliefs customs and art of a group of people are there _____.
5. A historian's work would include _____.
6. Give examples of primary sources. _____
7. A _____ is a written source of information.
8. _____ are objects from long ago.
9. If someone writes his/her opinion, it is a _____ source.
10. List some subjects that interest an archaeologist.

11. List some items that a physical geographer would study. _____

12. Give examples of people interacting with their environment. _____

13. What resources did early people utilize? _____
- _____
14. When early people decided where to settle, they looked for a place with _____ and _____.
15. A textbook is an example of a _____ source.
16. Sometimes archaeologist reconstruct _____ from hundreds of broken pieces.
17. Early people developed different cultures based on their _____.
18. Natural _____ helped societies develop trade and build cities.
19. Every place on earth has a specific _____.
20. _____ is the study of the past.
21. _____ are objects created and used by humans
22. _____ is a makeup of all living and nonliving things that affect life in an area.
23. _____ are materials found in the earth that people need and value.
24. _____ are the natural features of the land surface.
25. _____ are the knowledge, beliefs, customs, and values of a group of people.
26. _____ is the study of the earth's physical and cultural features.
27. _____ are the weather conditions in an area over a period of time.
28. _____ is a part of imprint of something that was once alive.